GORDON POOLE JOINS CAMARCO AS AN ASSOCIATE PARTNER

“We’re delighted to welcome Gordon to Camarco. He joins our fast growing team of talented, like-minded people and has significant mining expertise that will further enhance our highly successful energy and natural resources franchise, led by Billy Clegg. In support of our strong growth trajectory, we look forward to continuing to invest in some of the best talent in the market to further protect and promote our clients’ reputations and help them achieve their objectives.”

Geoffrey Pelham-Lane, Chief Executive Officer

Capital Market Communications Limited (“Camarco”), the financial and corporate communications consultancy, announces the appointment of Gordon Poole as an Associate Partner with effect from 1st December 2015.

He joins from Buchanan, where he specialised in the natural resources and professional services sectors, advising clients on a wide range of communications issues including financial calendar events, crises, IPOs as well as mergers and acquisitions.

Since the announcement of its launch in May last year, Camarco has grown strongly and now has 44 retained clients. These include multinational and FTSE companies, spanning the financial services, energy and natural resources, industrial and support services, real estate and consumer sectors.
